

CONVENTION WORKSHOP OPPORTUNITIES

Workshops are open to lay delegates, clergy and all visitors.
There is no cost for participation, but pre-registration is appreciated.

Convention At the Movies: *Spare Parts
Friday, Oct 25, 9am – 11:45am (Platinum Ballroom)
Rated PG – 13 for mild coarse language

Join us to watch Spare Parts (2015), a film based on the true story of a team of underdog high school students who join together to compete in a national robotics tournament, despite their lack of funds, equipment or experience. In addition to these barriers, each student on the team is an undocumented immigrant and faces the constant looming threat of deportation.

Through the incredible insights of this film, we will explore the topics of asset identification, truth, diversity, immigration, teamwork, youth engagement, and more!

The viewing of the movie is followed by a time of discussion.

Abiding in God and Bearing Fruit Through Our Stories
Friday, October 25, 1:45 - 3:30pm (Platinum Ballroom)

How do our stories reveal God's diversity? Join this workshop for an exercise in sharing stories, opening hearts and inviting forgiveness. Our stories, in civil discourse, can increase our capacity for fresh perspectives and deepened empathy.

Together, we speak and hear how to see nuanced ways of viewing the world. Participants will listen profoundly to bear the fruit of love and compassion with each other. Be prepared to stretch out your arm to reach that fruit!
