

SAVE THE DATES FOR EPIPHANIES

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 2020, The Rev. Lauren Winner will lead us in fresh ways of recognizing God, to inspire your preaching and teaching. Winner is a historian, author, lecturer and Episcopal priest. She is Associate Professor of Christian Spirituality at Duke Divinity School. Winner writes and lectures on Christian practice, the history of Christianity in America and Jewish–Christian relations. Her books include Girl Meets God; Mudhouse Sabbath; A Cheerful and Comfortable Faith; Still: Notes on a Mid-Faith Crisis, a book on overlooked biblical tropes for God; Wearing God and The Dangers of Christian Practice, which examines the effects of sin and damage on Christian tradition.

TUESDAY, MARCH 2, 2021, The Rev. Dr. Jason Fout will present engaging topics from his Learning From London series. Fout is a professor of theology at Bexley-Seabury. His Learning from London book describes how the Church of England in the Diocese of London is bucking the trend. In one of the most diverse, multi-faith, urban, and pluralistic cities in the world, London churches are growing and thriving against the odds, proclaiming the gospel afresh, and meeting the needs of their communities in creative, innovative, and life-changing ways. Based on more than six years of study, Jason A. Fout offers lessons from London, a road map to growth and revitalization for American churches—big and small, historic and newly started, evangelical and Anglo-Catholic.

TUESDAY, MAY 18, 2021, Dr. Catherine Meeks presents hope and challenges us to live into our Beloved Community promise.

Catherine Meeks, PhD, is Executive Director of the Absalom Jones Center for Racial Healing. A sought-after teacher and workshop leader, Catherine brings four decades of experience to the work of transforming the dismantling racism work in Atlanta. She is the author of six books and one inspirational CD and is the editor of the bestselling book, Living Into God's Dream: Dismantling Racism in America and co-author of Passionate for Justice: Ida B Wells as Prophet for Our Times. She holds a Master's Degree in Social Work from Clark Atlanta University and PhD from Emory University.

REGISTER AT EDOMI.ORG/EPIPHANIES