BUILDING A LEGACY SOCIETY

We can help!

LEGACY GIVING TASK FORCE
EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF MICHIGAN

Why Start a Legacy Society?

The average charitable bequest is between $50,000 - $75,000, representing a tremendous and largely untapped opportunity for churches to fund their mission and ministry for years to come while also allowing their members to build a legacy of their own.

Legacy societies are the most effective and easiest way to encourage your members to remember their church in their estate plans. Most importantly, they can be inspiring and lifegiving for your congregation and spiritually transforming for the donor!

Who are we? What do we do?

We are a task force of clergy and lay professionals appointed by the Bishop to support and encourage church leaders to build (and re-build) successful and thriving legacy giving ministries that fit your church's size and personality.

1

MEET

One of our team members will meet with your leadership team to assess where you are, understand your goals, and get to know your congregation and your culture.

2

IMPLEMENT

We then work with your team to adapt and implement our step-by-step process that will have a planned giving ministry up and running in a matter of months – at virtually no cost to you!

3

ONGOING SUPPORT

Members of our team are available for free ongoing help and consultation as you move forward, to help ensure that your new legacy society and planned giving ministry is a success!

We can help!

We offer this ministry as a gift to the church because we believe so strongly in the power of a successful planned giving ministry to transform your church. All you need to contribute is the desire to get started.

No budget needed!
No expertise required!

We will work with your leadership to adapt our simple, step-by-step process to your specific context and culture.

And what's more - it's surprisingly easy and can be a lot of fun!
