Summer Seminarian Expectations:

- The Seminarian will work for the congregation for ten weeks, including ten Sundays
- The seminarian will be supervised by the priest-in-charge or a priest member of a Total Ministry team
- The seminarian will be expected to participate in the leadership of Sunday worship weekly (i.e. part of the altar party); and preach on at least two Sundays during the internship
- The seminarian will work 20-25 hours a week for the congregation.
- The seminarian and supervisor will meet before the summer begins to develop three learning goals for the summer
- The Supervisor will commit to meeting with the seminarian for one-hour supervision meetings at least every other week
- The Supervisor will write an evaluation at the end of the summer, to be shared with the seminarian, bishop, diocesan field education coordinator and the Commission on Ministry

Prior to the beginning of the summer internship, the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan Field Education Covenant, including the learning goals and important dates for the summer internship, must be submitted to the Rev. Susie Shaefer, local field education director, at sshaefer@edomi.org.

Application should be sent to the Rev. Canon Ellen Ekevag at eekevag@edomi.org
